1. Introduction

The (Name of Society) was established in and registered under the Cooperative Societies Act of 2003 as revised and Cooperative Societies Regulations of 2005. The Board of Directors are elected by the Annual General meeting and/or Elective Conference of the Cooperative.

The Board is a representative of the shareholders in providing oversight for the operations of the Cooperative and to provide strategic direction. The(Name of Cooperative) Board Charter governs the regulation of meetings, proceedings and performance of the Board of Directors. This Charter has been developed to:

- a) Provide a clear statement of the roles, responsibilities, processes and operations of the Board for the benefit of both the Board and Management; and
- b) Ensure that the practices of the Board are consistent with and reflect the Board's commitment to best practice in Cooperative governance.

The Board shall be the focal point for Cooperative Governance in the sense that:

- a) The Board shall direct, govern and be in effective control of the Cooperative through the Charter setting out its responsibilities.
- b) The Board shall collectively provide effective Cooperative governance that involves managing the relationships between the management, its Members and other relevant stakeholders.
- c) The Board's paramount responsibility shall be the positive performance of the Cooperative in creating value for its Members and the entire co-operative movement of Eswatini. In doing so, it shall appropriately take into account the interests of all stakeholders.
- d) The Board shall exercise leadership, enterprise, integrity and judgment in directing the Cooperative so as to achieve the set mandate and Cooperative objectives. The Board shall ensure that stakeholders are engaged in such a manner as to create and maintain trust and confidence in the Cooperative.

2. Composition

2.1 Size & Composition

The Board shall consist of Directors,

2.2 Appointment

The Board is appointed by the General Membership through a set criterion and in accordance with the Cooperative's by-laws.

CODE OF CONDUCT AND CONFLICT OF INTEREST

10. Introduction

National Co-operatives Cooperative of Eswatini (COOPERATIVE) Ltd officials have an obligation to the organization that extends beyond assuring that their actions do not violate any statute or regulation. They are fiduciaries that owe it to the organization to act in good faith in the performance of their duties.

In accepting a position as an official of COOPERATIVE, an individual should recognize that the interests of the organization and its members have priority over any personal interest that an individual may have. The position should not be used to gain personal profit or advantage.

The Cooperative Act normally gives the Board members responsibility for the general direction and control of COOPERATIVE as a national co-operatives Cooperative. The Board thus has the task of establishing policies and procedures for the conduct of the organization's affairs. A code of conduct should be established to guide officials in avoiding conflicts of interest. The focus of the policy is to protect the image and integrity of COOPERATIVE and to strictly prohibit actions from which officials could derive personal gain while fulfilling their duties and responsibilities.

All officials will have to review; sign, and date a code of conduct statement and review the code of conduct policy. This should be done initially when the official is appointed and it should be renewed annually either at the first meeting of the officials immediately preceding the annual general meeting. The statement should request information that can be used to determine if the official may have a conflict of interest that would disallow them from performing their job, duties or responsibilities. Requiring the officials to sign a code of conduct statement disallows those involved in a violation to use the excuse, 'I didn't know this was a problem'.

11. General Policy Statements

Officials of COOPERATIVE are expected to:

- 11.1 Conduct the business of COOPERATIVE in full compliance with both the letter and spirit of the law within guidelines established by this policy.
- 11.2 Recognize that confidentiality of information must be maintained.
- 11.3 Recognize and avoid conflicts of interest.
- 11.4 Protect COOPERATIVE property, including information, products, services and assets.
- 11.5 Properly manage personal finances so they do not interfere with duties and responsibilities of the official.

- 11.6 Treat fairly and respect all COOPERATIVE employees, members and others with whom they interact.

12. Purpose and objectives

This code of conduct policy establishes clear standards of conduct for officials. The policy provides guidance to those performing COOPERATIVE business to ensure that such activities are performed in compliance with the letter and spirit of the law.

13. Authorized Activity

Every policy should clearly state authorized activity and acceptable behaviour. The acceptance of fees (including special discounts of any direct or indirect payment of money or property) and other items of value in return for service of COOPERATIVE renders are generally prohibited. The following exceptions may be allowable:

- 13.1 Payment of bona fide salary, wages and fees or other compensation, when these payments are made in the usual course of business;
- 13.2 Acceptance of gifts, gratuities, or favors based on an obvious family or personal relationships (with parents, children, or spouse of COOPERATIVE officials and employees) where circumstances are clear that the relationship rather than COOPERATIVE business is the motivating factor;
- 13.3 Acceptance of meals, refreshments, or entertainment of reasonable value (not exceed E300.00 per individual) in the course of a meeting or occasion, provided these expenses are otherwise reimbursable by COOPERATIVE as a justifiable business expense;
- 13.4 except where prohibited by law, the acceptance of loans from banks or other financial institutions, provided such transactions are made with customary terms and are used to finance legitimate and usual activities by COOPERATIVE officials;
- 13.5 Acceptance of unsolicited promotional materials of nominal value (limited to E300.00 per person);
- 13.6 Acceptance of discounts or rebates on merchandise or services, provided they do not exceed those that are available to other COOPERATIVE members or the general public;
- 13.7 Acceptance of gifts of reasonable value (limited to E300.00 per item and person) on the occasion of recognized events such as job promotions, retirement, etc.

- 13.8 Acceptance of civic, charitable, educational, or religious awards in recognition of a service performed or an accomplishment; and
- 13.9 Other activities not identified may be acceptable on a case-by-case basis with prior written approval from the Board.

14. Unauthorized activities

Officials are prohibited from soliciting, offering, promising, or accepting anything of value in connection with any transaction or business conducted by COOPERATIVE if that individual expects to be rewarded for performing the transaction.

The following are always considered unacceptable business activities:

- 14.1 No official will solicit or accept anything of value including, but not limited to, gifts, gratuities, fees, amenities, travel, or business of COOPERATIVE;
- 14.2 Officials are prohibited from having expenses paid for trips or other or other expensive entertainment by members or suppliers;
- 14.3 No official may accept a personal fee for arranging a loan from COOPERATIVE or from any other person or lending institution;
- 14.4 No official may receive any monetary considerations in connection with making of an investment for the organization;
- 14.5 No official or immediate family members may receive a loan that is made with preferential rates, terms, or conditions;
- 14.6 No official may be related to any employee of COOPERATIVE or have a contractual relationship with COOPERATIVE;
- 14.7 No official may be delinquent on a credit obligation with COOPERATIVE;
- 14.8 Officials or members of their immediate families are prohibited from accepting directly or indirectly any bequest from a member of the organization. If the official learns of such a bequest in a member's will, they must immediately report all the facts to the Finance Committee and the Board. In any event, unless the bequest is from a close relative, the official is not permitted to accept it.

14.9 Confidential information regarding any member obtained in the course of business must not be used for personal gain; nor should it be revealed to any person outside the organization without the consent of the member or as otherwise permitted by law.

The code of conduct policy shall be reviewed and revised as needed no less than annually. The review should be so noted in the Board minutes. The Finance Committee is responsible for the follow up on any suspicious activity. The committee will report to the Board or to a special meeting of the membership if it concerns the Board, any findings that might compromise the integrity of COOPERATIVE or be in violation of the code of conduct.

15. Code of conduct statement

Each official is required to sign a code of conduct statement upon being appointed to his or her position. Annually, at the first meeting of the officials preceding the annual general meeting each official will be required to read the code of conduct policy and date and sign a new code of conduct statement.

16. Code of conduct affirmation

I have received a copy of the code of conduct statement and have been given an opportunity to review the document and code of conduct policy. After having read the aforementioned policy, I affirm that:

I do not presently hold a position as an official in another depository institution except as follows:

Name and address of depository institution	Official capacity	Percentage of ownership interest	Income or fees earned in past 12 months

I am not presently engaged in any other outside business activity, nor do I have any other outside employment, except as follows:

Business activity or employer	Official capacity	Hours of work	Compensation

I have not been part of any of the activities listed as unauthorized in the policy or partaken in anything that might be considered unethical or a conflict of interest that would disallow me from fulfilling my job, duties and responsibilities.

I affirm that the above information is correct:
